

REPUBLIC OF THE MARSHALL ISLANDS
MARITIME ADMINISTRATOR

APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY DISPENSATION TO CARRY ADDITIONAL PERSONS ON BOARD

In accordance with the Republic of the Marshall Islands (RMI) Yacht Code (MI-103), yachts may apply to the RMI Maritime Administrator (the “Administrator”) for a temporary dispensation to carry more than 12 passengers on board a commercial yacht or private yacht limited charter or to carry more than 36 passengers on board a passenger yacht, on the condition that no passengers or guests are to be berthed on board for an overnight passage.

Only the owner, the yacht’s Designated Person (DP) or the Captain may submit this application to the Administrator, which shall include: 1) full particulars of the excursion; 2) number and type of life saving appliances; 3) crew list; 4) increased safety precautions, based on a risk assessment, that will be implemented; and 5) approval of the local port authorities regarding the proposed excursion. Confirmation that the stability criteria and the sewage holding capacity have been taken into account and found satisfactory for the increased number of persons on board is also required.

The Administrator may deny an application or revoke the dispensation at any time.
